MINISTRY OF INFORMATION & BROADCASTING

New Delhi, the 16th February 1959

G.S.R. 217(CIS).—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution of India and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, the President hereby makes the following rules, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—These rules may be called the Central Information Service Rules, 1959.

2. Definitions—(a) In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires—

(a) "Commission" means the Union Public Service Commission;

(b) "departmental candidate" means—

(i) a person in the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting or any of its attached and subordinate offices who was holding, or would have held, but for his absence on deputation, a duty post, on the 1st November, 1957, and who is holding, or has a lien on, a duty post in a substantive capacity at the commencement of these rules; or who has been declared quasi-permanent in a duty post on, or prior to, the 1st July 1957; or who was eligible to be declared quasi-permanent in a duty post on, or on any date prior to, the 1st July, 1957; or who was appointed to a duty post on the basis of selection by the Commission or whose appointment thereto was approved by the Commission, before the commencement of these rules;

(ii) any other person in the Ministry of Information & Broadcasting or any of its attached and subordinate offices whom the Government may declare as such on the basis of his qualifications and experience;

(c) "duty post" means any post, whether permanent or temporary, of a category specified in Schedules I to VI.

(d) "Government" means the Central Government;

(e) "grade" means a grade specified in Rule 4;

(f) "Schedule" means a schedule to these Rules;

(g) "Service" means the Central Information Service constituted under Rule 3.

3. Constitution of the Central Information Service.—With effect from such date as the Central Government may fix, there shall be constituted a Service to be known as the Central Information Service consisting of:—

(a) persons appointed to the Service in a substantive capacity under Rule 5; and

(b) persons appointed to the Service in a substantive capacity after such date, either by direct recruitment or by selection, as laid down in these Rules.

4. Grades and Authorised Strength.—(a) There shall be the following grades of the Service:—

- | | |
|--|--|
| (i) Senior Administrative Grade | } Class I (Gazetted)
Non-Ministerial. |

Principal Information Officer: Rs. 1,800—100—2,000.

(ii) Recruitment:

Vacancies in this grade shall be filled by selection on the basis of the recommendations of a Departmental Promotion Committee, from amongst officers holding duty posts in the grade Rs. 1,300—60—1,600 or any higher grade. In case the Committee recommend that no suitable officer is available for such promotion, recruitment to such vacancies shall be made in consultation with the Commission.

7. Probation.—(1) The period of probation of candidates appointed by direct recruitment shall be as follows:—

Junior Administrative Grade.	1 year.
Grade I	2 years.
Grade II.	2 years (including one year's training).
Grade III.	2 years.
Grade IV.	1 year.

(ii) If the work or conduct of an officer on probation is unsatisfactory, he may be discharged from service or his period of probation extended for such further period as the Government may deem fit. If his work or conduct is such as to show that he is unlikely to become efficient, he may be discharged forthwith.

(iii) Officers on probation shall start on the minimum of the time-scale of the grade to which they are appointed and will count their service, for increment, from the date of joining.

8. State Publicity Personnel.—The Government may fill, in consultation with the Commission, in any grade a number of posts not exceeding 10% of the strength of that grade, by the appointment of officers of the State Publicity Organizations, on deputation, for such period not exceeding 5 years, as the Government may specify. The posts so filled shall be taken into account in determining the number of posts to be filled by promotion or by direct recruitment.

9. Deputation.—The Government may require any member of the Service to hold for a specified period a post in the publicity organization of a Union Territory.

10. Reservations.—The orders issued from time to time regarding the reservation of vacancies for members of the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes shall apply to each grade.

11 Pay Fixation.—The pay of a departmental candidate appointed to any grade at the initial constitution of the Service shall be fixed in accordance with such orders as the Government may issue.

12. Other conditions of Service.—The conditions of service of members of the Service in respect of matters for which no provision is made in these rules shall be the same as for the time being applicable to other officers of the Government of corresponding status.

13. Relaxation.—The Government may, in consultation with the Commission relax the provisions of these rules to such extent as may be necessary to ensure satisfactory working of the Service or to remove any inequitable results.

14. Regulations.—The Central Government may make regulations, not inconsistent with these rules, to provide for all matters for which provision is necessary or expedient for the purpose of giving effect to these rules.

15. Interpretation.—If any question arises relating to the interpretation of these rules, the decision of the Government thereon shall be final.

	500

(b) Part II

A personality test for such candidates as may be called by the Commission for interview carrying 200 marks.

NOTE.—Candidates will be arranged in order of merit as disclosed by the aggregate marks finally awarded to each candidate.

5. The upper age limits prescribed in paras 1—4 above shall be relaxable:

- (i) Up to a maximum of five years if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe.
- (ii) Up to a maximum of three years if a candidate is a bona fide displaced person from Pakistan or from the unliberated areas of Jammu & Kashmir.

This concession will not, however, be admissible to a candidate who has already appeared at three previous examinations.

- (iii) Up to a maximum of eight years if a candidate belongs to a Scheduled Caste or a Scheduled Tribe and is also a bona fide displaced person from Pakistan or from the unliberated areas of Jammu & Kashmir.

This concession will not, however, be admissible to a candidate who has already appeared at eight previous examinations.

- (iv) Up to a maximum of three years if a candidate is a resident of the former French Settlements which have now become part of India and has been receiving his education through the medium of French
- (v) Up to a maximum of four years if a candidate is a resident of the Andaman and Nicobar Islands.

6. A candidate for any of the grades must be in good mental and bodily health and free from physical defect likely to interfere with the discharge of his duties as an officer of the Service. A candidate who, after such medical examination as may be prescribed under the rules in force, is found not to satisfy these requirements, shall not be appointed. Only such candidates as are likely to be considered for appointment, will be medically examined.

7. (a) No male candidate who has more than one wife living shall be eligible for appointment to the Service.

Provided that the Central Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for doing so, exempt any person from the operation of this provision.

(b) No female candidate who has married a person having already a wife living will be eligible for appointment to the Service, unless the Government specially exempt such candidates from the operation of this provision.

8. Success in the examination confers no right to appointment unless the Government are satisfied, after such enquiry as may be considered necessary, that the candidate is suitable, in all respects, for appointment to the Service.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

Rule 2(b).—Schedules I to VI specify the categories of 'Duty Posts' only for the purpose of determining the eligibility of departmental candidates for the initial constitution of the Service. Simultaneously with the initial constitution of the Service, these Schedule will be substituted by those containing details of the duty posts to be encadred in the Service.
